➤ PARKING CHARGE INFORMATION

Ltr01-216

On the 21 July 2026 vehicle DS24WXZ entered the Welcome Break Abington-Biggarr car park at 23:17:45 and departed at 08:17:06 on 22 July 2026. The signage, which is clearly displayed at the entrance to and throughout the car park, states that this is private land and that the car park is managed by Parkingeye Ltd. In addition the signage states that, as a maximum stay / paid parking car park, a Parking Charge is applicable if the vehicle remains within the car park for longer than the 2 hours 0 minutes max stay time, and fails to make the appropriate tariff payment thereafter. The signage also contains further terms and conditions associated with this car park by which those who park in the car park agree to be bound.

By either not purchasing the appropriate parking time or by remaining at the car park for longer than the permitted free stay or purchased parking time, in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the signage, the Parking Charge is now payable to Parkingeye Ltd (as the Creditor), by the driver.

If you were not the driver at the time, you should tell us the name and current postal address of the driver and pass this notice to them.

➤ APPEALS & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

All appeals must be submitted in writing online or alternatively by post to the address listed below. Appeals should be submitted within 28 days of the delivery of the Parking Charge and whilst under assessment, the value of the charge will not increase. You will be unable to appeal if the charge has already been paid. Supporting evidence should be attached to assist with an appeal. Parkingeye Ltd may be unable to return original documentation and therefore request only copies are sent. If an appeal is unsuccessful, details to access the Independent Appeals Service (POPLA) will be provided and 14 days to pay at the current amount. If an appeal to POPLA is made, the discounted rate will no longer apply, and the charge value will increase. POPLA are unable to review appeals that haven't already been assessed by Parkingeye Ltd. For Parking Charges issued in Scotland and Northern Ireland, only the driver of the vehicle will be able to appeal to POPLA.
